Vaginal HealthWeek
WEAVING VOICES FOR HEALTH & JUSTICE

Healthy Lube, Happy Vaginas

Vaginal Health Week is here! Founded by Weaving Voices for Health & Justice (formerly known as Women's Voices for the Earth), Vaginal Health Week highlights gaps in menstrual and intimate care. This year's focus is on lubricants.

This week includes the debut of a brand new factsheet and database and a webinar to help consumers make safer, well informed decisions about the lubricants they use.

Lube Factsheet and Database

Learn more about how to make safer, more informed decisions about what lubricants you purchase with our brand-new factsheet on lubricant safety, highlighting hidden risks, harmful chemicals, and the need for pH/osmolality transparency.

Lubricant Factsheet

We're launching a new, first-of-its-kind database that compiles available ingredients, pH, and osmolality information so consumers can make informed choices. Check out the database to learn more!
